

Harvey Oyer Mentioned in the Palm Beach Post

September 18, 2019 12:09 PM

West Palm Beach partner Harvey Oyer was mentioned in the Palm Beach Post. Harvey attended a Palm Beach Chamber of Commerce Breakfast at The Breakers featuring elected Palm Beach County Property Appraiser Dorothy Jacks on September 16.

Harvey presented a brief historical overview of the county's appraisal history. During the event, Dorothy provided some insight on how real estate values in Palm Beach have been eye-popping for a century.

To read the full article, please click here.

About Harvey E. Oyer III

Harvey E. Oyer III is a partner in the West Palm Beach office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where he is a member of the Real Estate Practice Group. As a fifth generation native of Palm Beach County, Harvey brings a unique perspective to his understanding of the issues facing the region, its real estate market and development. A registered lobbyist, Harvey represents commercial and residential developers, lending institutions, large rural land owners, and governmental agencies in real estate transactions, finance, land use, zoning, agricultural law, and government affairs.