

Harvey Oyer Recognized as one of Palm Beach County's Most Influential Business Leaders for 2020

January 7, 2020 09:01 AM

West Palm Beach partner Harvey Oyer was recognized as one of Palm Beach County's Most Influential Leaders for 2020.

The "Palm Beach 100" recognizes Palm Beach County's 100 most influential business leaders — men and women who are making a difference in their respective fields and in the community. They hail from diverse backgrounds and are well-traveled, well-educated and philanthropic. Those recognized share wisdom collected from their extensive careers and personal experience in the issue.

About Harvey E. Oyer III

Harvey E. Oyer III is a partner in the West Palm Beach office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where he is a member of the Real Estate Practice Group. As a fifth generation native of Palm Beach County, Harvey brings a unique perspective to his understanding of the issues facing the region, its real estate market and development. A registered lobbyist, Harvey represents commercial and residential developers, lending institutions, large rural land owners, and governmental agencies in real estate transactions, finance, land use, zoning, agricultural law, and government affairs.