

Shutts & Bowen Growth Boosts Its AmLaw Ranking

May 24, 2016 11:05 AM

Record revenues of $147 million boosted Florida business law firm Shutts & Bowen LLP seven spots in The Am Law 200 ranking, rising to Number 168, with revenues of $147 million and more than 270 attorneys throughout Florida.

“Revenue increased 8 percent in 2015, with matters coming to the firm being increasingly larger and more sophisticated,” Executive Committee Chairman Bowman Brown said.

Mr. Brown said a growth in specialty practices such as health care, intellectual property, construction litigation, and international and international tax law contributed to the results, along with a focus on efficiencies, cost controls and planning.

The firm reported a record $147 million in gross revenues, up from $136.6 million the year before, net income of $62.3 million, and profits per partner of $742,000, up from $700,000 in 2014.

Shutts brought on 39 new lawyers in 2015.
