

Tiffany Comprés and FIU Co-Host International Arbitration Program

November 4, 2019 03:11 PM

Comprés, Tiffany - Miami (Web)

Miami partner Tiffany Comprés and Florida International University are co-hosting the “Intelligence about Arbitrators & the Future of International Arbitration” Program on November 12 beginning at 5:30 pm at the firm’s Miami office.

This program will preview Arbitrators Intelligence’s new sample AI Reports on individual arbitrators and will examine how such reports will affect the market for international arbitrator services in the Americas and the legitimacy and predictability of international arbitration generally.

The featured speakers include Catherine Ann Rogers, Found & CEO of Arbitrator Intelligence; Huascar Ezcurra, Partner at Bullard Falla Ezcurra+; Manuel Gomez, Professor and Associate Dean of Graduate Studies and Global Engagement of Florida International University; and Tiffany Comprés, Partner at Shutts & Bowen.

For registration information, please click here.

About Tiffany N. Comprés

Tiffany N. Comprés is a partner in the Miami office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where she is a member of the International Arbitration and Litigation practice group. Tiffany represents clients in disputes across multinational borders. She is uniquely qualified to help companies buy and sell goods across borders and resolve international business disputes: she is one of only 55 attorneys in Florida certified as an expert in international law, speaks four languages, and has practiced in Italy, France, and the United States. She counsels clients in Florida and throughout the world, defending and prosecuting foreign and domestic claims on behalf of national and international businesses in international arbitration and litigation.